The lone wolf of the normandy

PLANET REACH

Lieutenant Spartan-b312 aka noble six was one of the last Spartans on reach currently fighting the covenant hoard the rest of noble team were all dead (expect jun) having delivered the a.i to the pillar of autumn under orders from Dr Catherine Halsey .

He was currently checking his equipment he had on him which was his dmr rife,magnum pistol, two grenades and his combat knife and emiles kukri knife,he would of left on the pillar of autumn but no one would of made it with the covenant fleet blocking there path so with that in mind he climbed the tower while fight of elites that were patrolling the tower trying to prevent anyone getting to the gun wielding his dmr he took the shield down through his knife into the elites neck quickly running to grab his knife he jumped on the next elites back and slit his throat taking down the leaders making the grunts scream and run away giving six the chance to head shot the fleeing grunts moving up the tower he say a lone hunter guarding the gun luckily for six a dead marine was holding a rocket launcher picking it up and sneaking around the back of the hunter having less amour aiming the rocket launcher he fired the rocket at the hunters back making the hunter ROOOR in pain with orange blood spilling on the floor making the hunter turn around firing his energy weapon at six using his amour lock ability preventing the hunter take his shield down,making the hunter angry not doing any damage to the Spartan started hitting him.

Six knowing his amour ability was about to stop counted down to when he would charge the hunter, come on si NOW! With the amour lock giving out six charged forward knocking the hunter on his back then shoving a grenade in the hunters mouth then rolling out of the way just as the hunter exploded all its orange blood and guts going all over floor,you really should watch what you eat six joked gee tough crowd,climbing the ladder to mount the onager cannon to stall the covenant gunships from destroying the pillar of autumn as well as avenging Emile who s body was laying on the ground with an energy sword in his back,firing the cannon at the ccs-class battle cruiser destroying it allowing the pillar of autumn to escape to deep space.

Six knowing he wouldn't be getting of the planet decided he would take as taking as many of the bastard with him as he could climbing down the ladder finding a sniper rife laying next to a dead ODST solider taking the rife and ammo around 50 bullets aiming the sniper over the banister of the tower and looking down the sights and saw a brute eating a UNSC soldiers leg while he was still alive screaming as he cut pieces of bit by bit with the brute laughing,silence human keep screaming and I make it longer till I decide to kill you filf...he would of said more but was shut it the head then showing mercy six shot the marine in the head too seeing as he lost both his legs and a chunk of his arms,it might of seemed cold but he would of died of blood lose soon,with them dead six throw the rocket launcher away and left the tower while killing the grunts that were still remaining in the tower with his dmr finding an elite by the entrance taking the sniper of his back and aiming down the sight at the elites head shooting its shield down first then again killing it with a head shot alerting the grunts of his were about putting the sniper on his back and taking out his magnum and firing at the grunts killing them with head shots,a few hours later six was leaning against the wall on the floor breathing heavily looking down on the floor seeing a puddle and seeing his refection of his amour which was pitch black in colourer MJOLNIR MARK V and a MARK V B with a gold visor,giving the helmet a twist as all the air trapped in the helmet hissed out and pulled the helmet of to revel a man around the age of 30 (tho he only looks about 21 due to cryo sleep) with short black hair and stubble blue eyes with a scar going down his left eye but the most notable thing was his unnatural pale skin tone due to being in the suit since he was 17 years old and being out of the sun,not looking bad for an old bastard if I do say so myself he said to himself rubbing his eyes he saw the chain that was attached to his dog tags grabbing the chain looking down he saw the words wolf the first nickname he got due to him being more of a lone wolf in his early day before joining noble team turning the dog tags around he saw a name he hadn't been called in twenty years RADIEN B-312 hmm cant believe I forgot my own name he muttered six remembered officer mendez telling him that even though was a Spartan keeps you human, how long had it been since he had been called that mostly it was freak or tin solider mostly by the ODSTs shaking his had to get them thoughts out of his head tucking his dog tags away then putting his helmet on and left to find more covies to kill he could hear the convent talking a bout a lone demon on the battlefield hmm didn't realise I was so famous well better go say hello don't wanna be rude he smirked under his helmet,shooting his dmr at the grunts killing them diving behind a wall to reload an elite came near and six grabbed it over the wall and cut its throat an grunt seeing what he did throw a plasma grenade making six jump over the the wall charging at the grunts as they fired at six his shields taking the damage jumping over the grunts he dropped a grenade making it explode killing them seeing the explosion the elites charged at the Spartan COME ON THEN SPLIT LIPS six roared grabbing an assault rife of the ground he opened fire on the elites killing one as it fell six grabbed it to use as a meat shield as they fired there gun at six waiting til they had to reload dropped the elites body and fired his assault rife in one hand and drew his magnum covering his back as they tried to flank him shooting the shit out of the elites shooting a grenade as an elite through it explode killing all the elites expect the general out of breath the elite knocked six over and with six on the ground it tried to kill him with its energy sword with six holding back with all he had but due to how tired he was he was failing and the energy sword was close to his neck DIE YOU FILTHY HUMAN the elite roared just as the elite was about to kill him six grabbed emiles knife and stabbed the elite in the throat killing it pushing the elite off him panting looking at the knife he smile thanks Emile he softly before he passed out the last thing six saw before passing out was a bright light.
